Archives & Website
Release Form

Over the years NTCA has accumulated a significant collection of primary materials from its own research projects and from contributions of folklore scholars and students who have worked in the region. The NTCA collections include audio and video recordings, photographs and slides, interview transcripts, student research projects and books. These are the primary materials upon which we base our own projects, such as exhibits, publications, and radio programs. Materials from our collections can be available to students, scholars and the general public for educational purposes

- I, _____, am a participant in From Heart to Hand, NTCA's annual Calendar, or other program of the Northern Tier Cultural Alliance (including Northern Tier Buy Fresh Buy Local chapter). I understand that the purpose of the project(s) is to collect photographs, stories (written or oral), recipes, audio and/or video recordings and selected related documentary materials (such as photographs, notes and manuscripts) that may be deposited in the permanent collections of Northern Tier Cultural Alliance (NTCA) The deposited documentary materials may be used for scholarly, educational and other purposes. I understand that NTCA plans to retain the product of my participation as part of its permanent collection and that the materials may be used for exhibition, publication, presentation on the World Wide Web and successor technologies, and for promotion of the organization and its activities in any medium.
- I hereby grant to NTCA the right to use the property that is the product of my participation (for example, my interview, performance, photographs, and written materials) as stated above. By giving permission, I understand that I do not give up any copyright or performance rights that I may hold.
